UBC SAUDER
SCHOOL OF BUSINESS

Program Goals and Learning Objectives
Doctor of Philosophy
Rev. 09/2017

Program Goal	Learning Objectives
1. Research skills: Students will possess the skills required to advance academic knowledge in their chosen fields.	A. Students will have the appropriate analytical research foundations for their chosen area of specialization.
2. Contribution to knowledge: Students will advance knowledge in their chosen area of specialization.	A. Student will be able to deliver deep analysis of research questions that contribute to academic knowledge.
3. Communication of knowledge: Students will be effectively communicate knowledge and expertise to a variety of audiences.	A. Student are successfully employed in top-tier academic institutions. B. Students will be able to effectively articulate their research in manuscripts toward eventual appearance in leading publication outlets. C. Students will be able to teach a complete course effectively.