

POSITION ANNOUNCEMENT

Entrepreneurship and Innovation Lecturer

The Sauder School of Business at the University of British Columbia (Vancouver Campus) is seeking applicants for one Entrepreneurship and Innovation Lecturer position (non-tenure track) beginning July 1, 2022.

Applicants must have a Masters or Ph.D. degree in business or related fields. Professional experience in entrepreneurship, demonstrated excellence in teaching entrepreneurship, and skills with modern classroom technology are preferred.

The position will focus primarily on teaching entrepreneurship to students in the BCOM and professional graduate programs. Duties also include course and program development, advising students, and participation in relevant School activities.

Interested candidates should submit a letter of interest, a resume or CV, a statement of teaching philosophy, any prior teaching evaluations to: marketing@sauder.ubc.ca. In addition, applicants should arrange for three confidential signed letters of recommendation to be sent separately to: marketing@sauder.ubc.ca.

A teaching demonstration may be required as part of the interview process. The application deadline is March 9, 2022.

We thank all applicants for their interest. Only those candidates selected for an interview will be contacted.

UBC hires on the basis of merit and is committed to employment equity. All qualified persons are encouraged to apply.

Equity and diversity are essential to academic excellence. An open and diverse community fosters the inclusion of voices that have been underrepresented or discouraged. We encourage applications from members of groups that have been marginalized on any grounds enumerated under the B.C. Human Rights Code, including sex, sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, racialization, disability, political belief, religion, marital or family status, age, and/or status as a First Nation, Metis, Inuit, or Indigenous person.

All qualified candidates are encouraged to apply; however, Canadians and permanent residents will be given priority.
